From there it's time to check out The Channon for a change of pace. The famous markets are held on the second Sunday of the month and they are well worth a look!

Nimbin is not far away for a touch of sixties nostalgia, a real whiff of the past so to speak – then back to Lismore via the unique Nimbin Rocks and the dairy farms of Goolmangar.

Stop off at the local Regional Gallery when you reach Lismore. It's a great place to see works by Margaret Olley, Australian icon and generous local.

Back to Ballina via the Bruxner Highway and the town of Alstonville.

Depending on the time of day there are cafes and hotels in this lovely village for a casual meal, a quiet drink or a local coffee.
